YOUR TASTES MATTER

My style is constantly evolving.

It's young.

Funk.

But it's true to the artists who came before.

I feel a responsibility to keep the dance alive.

To keep it out there.

To keep the style.

Stick it to fraud.

Real-time, good-funds PIN debit is safer than signature debit transactions. Thanks to the STAR® Network and First Data more and more people are making purchases with debit cards. And while people use both kinds of debit, they've shown a clear preference for PIN debit purchases.¹ That's good news for your direct deposit accounts. According to a recent independent study, the average net fraud losses were more than four times greater for signature debit programs than for PIN debit programs.²

“COLUMBUS IS DOPE.”

It's not exactly the way we would have put it, but to Jackie494 it sums up her weekend visit to Columbus quite nicely. She loved seeing Marshall Crenshaw at the Thirsty Ear Tavern, and was surprised to discover that Thai Chili ice cream from Jeni's is off the hook. Visit ExperienceColumbus.com and you can see videos, pictures and testimonials of Columbus and our many attractions from people like Jackie494. Great feedback from people who've experienced Columbus firsthand. Now that's dope.
